Governance Classification

Objective

Classify the employee's workplace query into exactly one category: OPERATIONAL or SENSITIVE.

Employee Query

Use the Employee Query input from the workflow.

Classification Rules

OPERATIONAL
Classify routine workplace questions as OPERATIONAL, including:
- Planned leave applications.
- Unplanned absence reporting.
- Leave cancellation.
- IT troubleshooting and technical support.
- Software access.
- Expense reimbursement procedures.
- Receipt requirements.
- Routine workplace policies.

SENSITIVE
Classify the following as SENSITIVE:
- Harassment or discrimination.
- Retaliation or workplace bullying.
- Termination or disciplinary disputes.
- Salary or compensation grievances.
- Employment contract interpretation.
- Legal threats or legal notices.
- Fraud or compliance allegations.
- Whistleblowing.
- Privacy complaints.
- Confidential employee disputes.

Decision Rules

1. Classify according to the actual meaning and intent.

2. Routine administrative questions are OPERATIONAL.
3. If a query contains both operational and sensitive matters, classify it as SENSITIVE.
4. If ambiguous and potentially sensitive, classify it as SENSITIVE.

Required Output

Return exactly ONE word:

OPERATIONAL

OR

Do not include explanations, summaries, email content, routing instructions, or additional text.
